IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Penalties :

- We have now three (3) Shido, instead of previously four and the third Shido becomes Hansokumake

IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Kumikata 1:

- To simplify the refereeing and its understanding some of the actions on how to grab the judogi , which were punished in the past, will no longer be penalized (pistol grip , pocket grip)
- Unconventional Kumikata such as cross gripping and belt gripping will not be penalized as long as Tori is preparing to attack.

IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Kumikata 2 :

- Negative positions will be penalized by Shido, because they are against the spirit of Judo . It means no searching for an attack, defensive attitude etc.
- Recognizing the difficulty of preparing a throwing action, the time between Kumikata and making an attack is extended to 45 seconds.

Grip below belt:

Leg grabbing or grabbing the trousers, shall be penalized first time by Shido and second time by Hansokumake .

IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Against the spirit of Judo :

- Any action against the spirit of Judo will be immediately penalized by Hansokumake!

IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Safety :

- If Uke attempts to avoid landing on his back by any movement which is dangerous for the head , neck or spine, he shall be penalized with Hansokumake (part bridge in article 20).
- Landing on both elbows is considered valid and should be evaluated with waza-ari.
Landing on one elbow is invalid and can not be used for assessment.

IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Throw and counter-attack :

- In a case of counter-attack the first competitor landing will be considered as thrown.
- If a score can be given, it will be assigned.
- Any action after landing will be considered as a Ne-Waza action and can not be counted.

IJF Referee & Coach Seminar

Judogi :

- For a better efficiency and to have a good grip it is necessary for the jacket to be well fitted in the belt, with the belt tied tightly . To reinforce that, the competitors shall arrange their Judogi and belt quickly between Matte and Hajime announced by the referee.
